Big Brothers and Sisters Brings in $4,200 Through Bowling Events
Lebanon, OH-

Big Brothers and Sisters of Warren and Clinton Counties is pleased to announce a profit of over $4,200 from their Bowl For Kids' Sake events. These "bowl-a-thon" fundraisers took place in Wilmington on Saturday, April 17th at Royal Z Lanes, and in Lebanon on Saturday, April 24th at Orbit Fun Center in Lebanon. Bowlers were invited to collect sponsorships, and the top fund-raisers at each event also took away prizes. As the top fundraiser at the Lebanon event, Joel Robison of Lebanon won a 3 month family membership to the Springboro YMCA. Natalie Barnett of Wilmington won a 3 month family membership to the Clinton County YMCA for raising the most money at the Wilmington event, and was also awarded a free night's stay at Great Wolf Lodge for raising the most money between the two events overall.

The agency also thanks this year's event sponsors: April Gardner, DO & Rose Ebel, DO; Ferno Washington; Fowler, Demos & Stueve Attorneys at Law; Gano Law Offices; Kettering College of Medical Arts; Lebanon Optimist Club; Mason American Legion Post #194; Oswald-Hoskins Funeral Home; Village Eye Care, Inc; Viox Services; Warren County FOP & FOPA.

The following are the Companies/Individuals that donated prizes: Great Wolf Lodge, Clinton County YMCA, YMCA of Greater Dayton, Target-Fields Ertel, Jamie Harper, Salon 757, Ted Tozer, Books N More, BW3, Chakeres Theatres, City of Mason Parks & Recreation, Countryside YMCA, Dakin Insurance, Donatos Pizza, Kettering College of Medical Arts, KFC/Long John Silvers, Marvin's Organic Gardens, McDonalds, Patchwork People, Wendys, United Dairy Farmers, The Village Ice Cream Parlor, and Wendy's.

Big Brothers and Sisters would also like to thank Lebanon High School National Honor Society, The Robison Family, The Barnett Family, Esther Bussell & Friends, Clinton County Juvenile Courts, The Figary Family, and the Daniels Family for bringing teams to this year's events.
